Each year EDS prepares a commencement press release which includes general information about the graduates, the speaker, and the honorary degree recipients. If you would like EDS to send a personalized release to the publications of your choosing, please list those publications below (please include URLs for secular publications and/or the city and state in which they are located).

I consent to have EDS release this information to my diocese and to the media (including social media).

I prefer that EDS not release this information to my diocese and to the media (including social media).
